- Care regardless of color, race, religion, creed, etc.
- Consideration, respect, and recognition of you and your individuality
- Treatment privacy
- Safe environment
- Ask for (except in emergencies) a person of the same sex to be available for any part of an exam, treatment or procedures performed by a person of the opposite sex.
- Not be undressed any longer than needed for the exam, test, procedure, or other reason.
- Private and discreet consultation, exam, and care. See Notice of Privacy Practices for the full list of privacy and security of health information/medical record rights
- To wear appropriate personal clothing and religious or other symbolic items, as long as they do not interfere with your treatment or diagnostic procedures.

Health Status and Care

- Be informed of your health status in terms and / or language that you, your family, and caregivers can be expected to understand.
- Take part and be active in your care and treatment plan.
- Participate in decisions in your care, unless your doctors or others believe it is harmful to you.
- Know, be told, and understand:
 - the names, roles, and qualifications of your health care experts that provide your care.
 - your follow-up cares.
 - risks, benefits and side effects of all medicines and treatment procedures for your diagnoses
 - innovative or experimental medicines and treatment procedures of diagnosis offered
 - alternative treatment options offered
 - your procedure and to “give informed consent” before it begins
 - possible outcomes of your care and treatment
 - the assessment and management of your pain
 - When and if the Practice recommends other health care institutions:
 - to participate in your care
 - to know who these other health care places are and what they will do
 - to refuse their care
 - Get help from the doctor and others for follow-up care, if available
 - To change providers or get a second opinion, including specialists at your request and expense

Decision Making and Notification

- Choose a person to be your health care representative or decision-maker.
- Exclude those you do not want help from or to join in your care or decisions.
- Ask for, but not have the right to demand, services the Practice does not think are needed or appropriate.
- Refuse treatment
- Be included in experimental research only with your written consent.
- Refuse experimental research including new drug and medical device investigations.
- Receive the information necessary to approve a treatment or procedure.
- Give consent to a procedure or treatment.

Access to Services

- Receive free services of a translator, interpreter, or other necessary services or devices to help you communicate with the Practice in a timely manner (i.e. qualified interpreters, written information in other format or languages, etc.)
- Bring a service animal except where prohibited pursuant to Practice policy
- Have access to our facility buildings and grounds in compliance with The Americans with Disabilities Act, a law that stops discrimination against people with disabilities.
- Prompt and reasonable response to questions and requests for service
- If you need any of the above services, contact the Practice management team at (843) 553-7615.

Ethical Decision

Talk to and join in with your doctor about:

- conflict resolutions
- withholding resuscitative services
- foregoing or withdrawing life sustaining care
- investigational study or clinical trials

Know that if your health care expert decides your refusal to accept treatment prevents you from getting the right care (as stated by its ethical and professional standards), it can end the relationship.

Payment and Administrative

- Review your health care bill regardless of your ability to pay it or the payment source.
- Receive information about available financial resources.
- If uninsured, to receive, before the provision of a planned nonemergency medical service, a reasonable estimate of charges for such service and information regarding any discount or charity policies for which the uninsured person may be eligible.
- Know if the Practice, doctors, and other team members accept Medicare, the government's health insurance for those aged 65+ or disabled.
- Know and understand the Medicare charges for your services and treatment provided.
- Receive if you ask, with explanation, a reasonable estimate of your health care charges before treatment.
- To be free from any requirement to purchase drugs, or rent or purchase medical supplies or equipment from any particular source (specifically in accordance with the provisions of the CA Section 1320 of the Health and Safety Code) and also to receive patient choice in these type of decisions

Protective Service

- Receive available protective and advocacy services.
- Receive, as offered by state law:
 - care and treatment for mental illness or development disability
 - all legal and civil rights as a citizen
